

CONTINENTAL MARKET

ON THE SQUARE OUTSIDE LUDLOW CASTLE

Thursday 11th March to Sunday 14th March 2010

Enjoy delicious Continental food & drink

- Saucisson or French dried sausage - a selection of 11 different varieties from the Auvergne region which is famous for its Volvic water and volcanoes. There are wild boar or venison varieties for those who enjoy a strong flavour, and chorizo or black pepper for those who prefer things spicier. These saucissons are sold at competitive prices and the special offer of 3 saucisson and a bottle of wine for £10 is extremely popular with our customers.
- Wine - this stall always offers a range of at least four red wines, 2 whites and a rosé, all at a set price of £10 for any 3 bottles. The stall holder will be happy to give you his professional advice to help you choose your wine.
- Dried fruit & nuts - at least 30 different varieties of dried fruits and 20 types of nuts. You can discover dried mango, strawberries or kiwi fruit, organic apricots. There are mixes of macadamia, cashew, pistachio and walnut, which make an ideal accompaniment when drinking an aperitif with your friends or just for snacking when you feel like it.
- Olives - here you can taste all the delights of Greece with a wonderful selection of olives, including Kalamata and olives stuffed with feta or pimento. You will also enjoy delicious dolmades and sun-dried tomatoes. A visit to this stall will make you feel you are on holiday in Greece.
- Oriental pastries - Turkish delight, baklava, almond and honey pastries, gazelle horns - everything you can enjoy with your afternoon tea.
- Crêpes - delicious pancakes direct from Brittany. Choose from Gaetan's menu of savoury and sweet crêpes. You will find the popular lemon flavour or, especially for gourmands, the banana-nutella variety. For those who prefer the savoury version, don't miss the forestière (mushroom) or the 'complète' with cheese, ham, mushroom and egg.
- Paella - this delicious Spanish specialty is prepared before your very eyes and will bring a touch of sunshine to your day.
- Tartiflette - for those who prefer to discover the delicious flavours of the French Alps, try this creamy, tasty tartiflette.

- German sausage - here you will find succulent sandwiches made from German frankfurter sausages and many other specialities – garnished with onion or sauerkraut of course.
- Cakes and biscuits - this is the stall for gourmands of all ages. There is a large selection of sweets, fudges, chocolate gateaux and waffles direct from Belgium. The stall holders are there to advise you and let you taste some of their specialities.
- Pashmina - a wide range of beautiful pashmina shawls, plain, striped, checked or embroidered, all at the special price of £5 for three.
- Jewellery - rings, bracelets and necklaces from Paris and its talented designers. A set price of £10 for any three items.
- Watches - this young and dynamic team are ready to serve you with a range of more than 300 types. There will be something for every taste.
- Hats and caps - on this stall you will find the very the latest Parisian fashions in head ware - 300 different styles for you to choose from.
- Puppets and engraved wood items - this is the stall that the children will love with small and large wooden puppets, or the chance to have your child's name spelt out with wooden letters pulled along by a little train.
- Wooden roses - our florist offers you a wonderful selection of colours from which you can choose your roses and create for yourself a beautiful, timeless bouquet.
- Products from the French Jura - in this beautiful mountainous region of France they produce an excellent range of charcuterie smoked on wood fires and tasty hard cheese such as comté and gruyère reminiscent of the lovely cheeses of neighbouring Switzerland. All these delicious products can be found on this stall.
- Soaps and table cloths from Provence - our provençal trader Philippe and his stall with its wonderful scent of lavender brings to you a great choice of products from southern France. There is the famous "savon de Marseille", as well as soaps perfumed with lavender and many other scents from this region. There are lavender essential oils and also a range of very colourful provençal tablecloths. Everything you need to bring the sunshine of Provence into your life!
- Bonsai Trees - this stall is run by Rob who is a real enthusiast of bonsai trees and he will tell you that it is not how big the trees are that matters but the way that you prune them. As well as giving you the chance to admire and buy his trees he will give you knowledgeable and practical advice on how to grow your bonsai trees to get the best possible results.

- Ciders and non-alcoholic drinks from Lithuania - here you can choose from several varieties of cider including apple, fruits of the forest, raspberry, pear and cranberry. The children will not be left out. There are special non-alcoholic party drinks just like champagne. Come and try out the different flavours.
