

Tapestry by Jack Andow

Ludlow Market Tapestry

Ludlow Town Council is delighted with a fantastic tapestry of Ludlow's newly renovated market stalls designed and made by local artist Jack Andow.

Market manager, Christopher Bayliss said, 'I love the tapestry. Jack took his inspiration from a photograph taken by market trader, Mr Knoller and skillfully created a beautiful work of art.'

Ludlow Market Traders Association, chaired by Mark Woodward, are equally pleased with the tapestry and plan to use Jack's artwork on a new cotton shopping bag, exclusive to Ludlow market.

Ludlow Town Council's Representational Committee recently recommended that Council donate £100 to Mr Andow's favourite charity Royal Naval Association.

Council voted to ratify the recommendation in February.

Ludlow Market has something for everyone. Enjoy bargain-hunting on Mondays, Wednesday, Fridays and Saturdays.

An excellent local produce market is held on the second and four Thursday of each month.

Craft & County markets are held on the third Thursday of each. Sunday Antique and Flee Markets are held regularly.
