

LUDLOW BUTTERCROSS CUPOLA UNVEILING

Progress on Restoration Works - September 2010

L-R: Dave, painter; Simon, plumber & leadwork craftsman; Nick Hill, Operations Director; Cllr John Aitken, Mayor of Ludlow; Stephen Treasure, Treasure & Son; Cllr Viv Parry, Ludlow Town Council and the Dave, Shropshire Star photographer

High quality new cupola leadwork

New Cupola render and leadwork

L-R: Cllr Viv Parry Nick Hill & Cllr John Aitken

JOINING TOGETHER IN CELEBRATION

Councillor, contractors and craftsmen joined together to celebrate a key stage in the restoration of the Buttercross Cupola. The cupola has been restored and reinstated on the Buttercross.

Further works required at the Buttercross include cleaning and refurbishment of the clock, painting of the cupola, and internal works on the ceiling plaster.

It is expected that the work will continue throughout 2010.

L-R: Stephen Treasure, Nick Hill & Cllr John Aitken pictured in Buttercross Market space