

LUDLOW CONCERT BAND
12 June 2010, at St John's Church, Ludlow

Ludlow Town Band (pictured right) recently performed at a joint concert with two local Male Voice Choirs, The Ludlow Male Voice Choir and The Craven Arms Male Voice Choir at St John's Church, Ludlow to raise money for St Giles Church, Ludford and St John's.

Find out more out Ludlow Concert Band at www.ludlowband.co.uk

The Town Concert Band, conducted by Colin Reeves, complemented the Male Voice Choirs very well and added a nice touch to the whole evening. The band was well-received by the hundred and eighty strong audience, who seemed to thoroughly enjoy the whole evening.

Members of Ludlow Concert Band enjoyed supporting the first joint concert of the two local choirs, who had both worked hard to produce a special programme for the evening. Wonderful tunes such as Comrade in Arms, and March of the Peers, as well as some really rousing Welsh songs were performed. Margaret Davies conducted the Welsh songs and Colin Reeves conducted the English ones. The concert raised over £1000 which was split between the two local churches, with £60 donated to Ludlow Concert Band.

