

Mayor's Sunday Service - 14th March 2010

On Mothering Sunday the town had more than one cause for celebration.

Visiting Mayors and dignitaries from the whole of Shropshire attended the Mayor's Sunday Service at St Laurence's Church.

In attendance with the congregation were Councillor Barrow and Mrs Barrow, Leader of Shropshire Council; Councillor Mrs and Mr Daniels, Mayor of Hereford City; Councillor Townsend and Mrs Townsend, Chair of Shrewsbury Town Council; Councillor Martin and Mrs Martin, Mayor of Kidderminster Town; Councillor Hoskins, Vice-Chair of Craven Arms Town Council; Councillors Jackson, Hunt, Pope, Mitchell, Glaze and Newbold, Ludlow Town Council

During the service the Town Council confirmed their vow of commitment to the town and Cannon Jeffrey Wilcox as Town Councillor gave an appropriate and moving sermon from the pulpit.

The Town Mayor Councillor Martin Taylor-Smith and Lady Mayoress Rosanna Taylor-Smith invited everyone to enjoy refreshments, including cakes from local producer Cariad Cakes, and Fairtrade tea and coffee, after the service.

The collection taken during the service was donated to the Mayor's charity, Working Together, a local organisation providing a focus for people with learning disabilities. The charity runs a friendly café in Fish Street, just off High Street in Ludlow.
