Mayor of Ludlow –
Councillor P Draper

From The Mayor Of Ludlow

Welcome to the Spring Edition of the Buttercross Bulletin. The Mayoral Year runs from May to May so I am in a position to reflect and be thankful for a great year. I would like to thank the residents of Ludlow for supporting the Council in it's work.

Please come along to Mayor Making Ceremony on 27th May when I will take the opportunity to share some of the highlights and present cheque to my Charity Homestart.

Looking forward to 2015-16, despite funding cuts we have pledged to continue to provide the same level of service and support local organisations with funding of over £38,000. On 26th July 2015, a horse parade through Ludlow will commemorate the horses who valiantly supported WW1 soldiers.

Best Wishes

Councillor Paul Draper Mayor of Ludlow

Mayor Making 2015

On 13th May 2015 The Mayor Elect & Deputy Mayor Elect will be voted in by members of the Council. Mayor Making will take place on 27th May 2015 where the Mayor Elect and the Deputy Mayor Elect will be welcomed and robes will be exchanged. The outgoing Mayor Councillor Draper will share his highlights and Civic awards will also be awarded and the new Mayor will announce their chosen Charity for their year as Mayor.

Mayors Sunday 2015

Mayors Sunday will take place on Sunday 28th June 2015 at 11:30 am in the Parish Church of St Laurence Ludlow. The Mayor will be welcomed by the community pledging their service and dedication to the Town. After the service the Parade Marshall will present the Parade to the Mayor.

1914-1918 - Horse Parade Commemorating WW1

A service and horse parade will be held on Sunday 26th July 2015 to remember both horses and military personnel during this period.

A Service will be held at Ludlow Castle led by the Venerable Colin Williams and Ludlow Hunt will parade through Ludlow with the Mayor in a Horse drawn trap.

Henley Road Cemetery

Commemoration of WW1 and the centenary of the opening of Henley Road Cemetery. Ludlow Town Council is responsible for management of Henley Road Cemetery.

The Cemetery dates from 1914 and public records are available on request.

The cemetery is open for new burials, although Councillors are currently considering a project to extend the area available for new graves because it already contains over 2000 burials and cremated remains.

Visit Ludlow Town Council website to look at the 1914-18 project which aims to remember those buried in Henley Road Cemetery and those commemorated on the WW1 boards who served and fell in WWI in 1914.

Ludlow Town Council Planting

The council's perennial planting was a success in 2014-15 and improvements will continue to be made in 2015-16. The Council is pleased to support perennial planting to encourage greater bio-diversity and the insect population.

Ludlow's Annual Youth Festival will be taking place at the Rockspring Centre 1st August 2015

Ludlow In Bloom 2015

The children's plant competition this year will be the Antirrhinum commonly known as the "Snapdragon" pictured left.
