Town Plan update

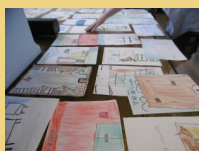

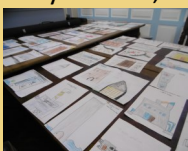

Get involved in Ludlow's Town Plan!

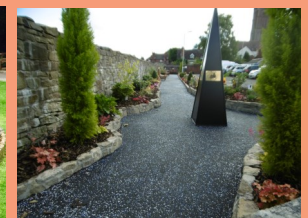

Everyone's view is important - Ludlow's local organisations are steering the plan with the Town Council. Pupils of Ludlow's Infant and Junior Schools have drawn what they love about Ludlow.

Consultation will take place across the town and on the market square during the summer. Please see local press and social media for more ways to tell us what makes you Glad, Mad or Sad in Ludlow!

Ludlow in Bloom

Ludlow welcomed the Heart of England in Bloom judges on Thursday 7th July to see Ludlow's community spirit and beautiful spaces.

The judges visited the new Museum at the Buttercross, the new Sensory Garden in Castle Street Car Park, Ludlow Foyer's Flower Bed in St John's Gardens, the new Fairtrade bed in Castle Gardens, Ludlow Junior School and the beautiful flowers beds in the heart of the town.

Ludlow in Bloom are going for Gold again for the 12th time. Results will be revealed in September.

Mayor's Sunday 2016

Mayor's Sunday held on the 26th June 2016 was the first civic event of Mayor of Ludlow, Councillor Paul Draper's third Mayoral year 2016 – 2017. The service at The Parish Church of St Laurence lead by Mayor's Chaplain Canon Jeffry Wilcox, celebrated the Town Council's service to Ludlow and the town's strong community spirit within the town as well as Armed Forces Weekend.

The Mayor and Deputy Mayor Councillor Colin Sheward lead the civic procession of Town Councilors and visiting Mayors from Shrewsbury, Hereford, Bridgnorth, Oswestry & Tenbury. A parade of local uniformed organisations was lead by the town's Parade Marshall, David Davies and accompanied by Ludlow Concert Band.

90TH

BIRTHDAY

In Celebration of Her Majesty the Queen's 90th Birthday the town held a special service at the Parish Church of St Laurence on 12th June 2016 and a card was sent to Her Majesty the Queen on

Museum at the Buttercross

The Town Council has successfully recruited museum assistants and regular weekly opening on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays will begin from 12th August.

Mayor of Ludlow, Councillor Draper described the museum displays, "Ludlow's story is told through artefacts, interpretation information and interactive audio visual elements including an old fashioned dial up telephone with stories from the past."

The exhibits show visitors the underlying geology and fossils of Ludlow through pre-history Bromfield burials to the Bitterley Hoard; Medieval Ludlow; the development of the Church & Castle; an exploration of the town's prosperity due to the wool industry; Tudor times in Ludlow; the history of the museum itself; the historic importance of the market and independent retailers in a town that once boasted 117 shop and social history across the ages including Wartime in Ludlow.

Town Clerk, Gina Wilding, said 'We would like to thank all of Shropshire Council's curatorial staff, past and present, for putting together a wonderful exhibition and great audio visual elements for Ludlow Museum.'

Museum entry will be £1 adults, 50p children over 5yrs and under fives will be free.

Shropshire Council Service Cuts Update

Ludlow Town Council has made significant progress in their dialogue with Shropshire Council regarding the proposed cuts to local services and feel that Shropshire Council's change of direction is a very positive step forward in negotiations.

Shropshire Council has decided that some services can be taken "out of scope" for the current discussions, and has confirmed that Ludlow Museum Resource Centre, Ludlow Library, Customer Service Point, Ludlow Leisure Centre, and youth activities will continue to be funded to some extent by Shropshire Council beyond April 2017.

Leader of Shropshire Council, Malcolm Pate, has since announced that zero budgets will not come into effect until April 2018.

Funding and services to be cut by Shropshire Council in Ludlow include 12 recreation areas, Visitor Information Services, art, culture and museum funding.

Mayor of Ludlow Councillor Paul Draper said, "Ludlow Town Council understand the importance of creating a sustainable future for Ludlow. Ludlow is an important market town and an asset in Shropshire. Our principle council, Shropshire Council, needs to recognise that its role is to support all the unique market towns and rural population of Shropshire."

Ludlow Town Council and many other market towns believe that Shropshire Council cannot abdicate its responsibilities across Shropshire; and if the Council Tax needs to be raised beyond the cap set by central government then Shropshire Council has to act responsibly, step up to the plate, and call a referendum to raise the Council Tax across the county so that centralised and equitable services are retained and residents can remain proud of this beautiful county.'
