Ludlow Calendar of Events 2014

Mayor's Welcome & Town Clerk's Review 2014

Cllr Jim Smithers Mayor of Ludlow

As Mayor of Ludlow 2013-2014, it is my pleasure to welcome you to Ludlow's Calendar of Events 2014 and, if you are visiting, to welcome you to our beautiful market town.

Ludlow is a vibrant market town with a great community spirit. We are blessed with an abundance of festivals, events and wonderful historic venues.

Here are a few highlights:

Ludlow Spring Festival & Marches Transport Festival • Mayfair Ludlow Arts & Shakespeare Festival • Ludlow Fringe Festival Secret Gardens of Ludlow • Green Festival • Ludlow Food Festival Ludlow Medieval Christmas Fayre Christmas Light Switch-On & Santa's Grotto

Rest assured you'll have reason to visit more than once – hope to see you again soon,

Ludlow Town Council runs the town's market and a range of local services. We work with Ludlow in Bloom to create a beautiful town with floral beds, tubs and hanging baskets and we put the sparkle into Ludlow when it's time for the Christmas lights.

Recently, we have worked with Shropshire

Council, South Shropshire Housing Association and the local community to build a new boxing club at Wheeler Road. The Linney Riverside Park (SY8 1EE) is as popular as ever in the summer. In 2014, we will open Ludlow's new Museum and Heritage Centre @TheButtercross

Best wishes, Gina Wilding, Town Clerk

@TheButtercross Museum & Heritage Interpretation Centre

The Buttercross Heritage Interpretation Centre is an exciting new development in the centre of historic Ludlow, SY8 1AW.

The Buttercross was designed by the local architect, William Baker (1705-71) and built between 1743-4. It will soon rediscover a central role presenting Ludlow's unique geology, treasured finds, social and architectural histories.

Ludlow Town Council is working with Shropshire Council and the Friends of Ludlow Museum to create an inspiring space that reflects Ludlow's history and its eternal community spirit.
