Great Events in Ludlow

Ludlow Food Festival

From humble beginnings to the very best Food Festival in the country Ludlow's Food and Drink Festival started in 1995 and has grown and grown in visitor numbers and reputation ever since! The festival celebrates the quality and diversity of the superb independent food and drink producers and suppliers that abound in Ludlow and the Marches – from rare breeds of meat to real ale, cider and perry, produced and sold by people who really care about what they are doing. There's a brilliant atmosphere throughout the weekend and there really is something for everyone, from gourmet to sausage fan to beer lover. Once you've tried it you'll come to Ludlow again and again! www.foodfestival.co.uk

Ludlow Medieval Fayre

Celebrate the start of the Christmas season in the stunning medieval setting of Ludlow Castle. Over the weekend, explore over 100 stalls selling seasonal wares, food and drink, crafts, historical goods and more; it's the ideal chance to find the perfect original gift or indulge in a unique treat. With a wide range of food and drink stalls to tickle your taste buds, grab a mulled wine, a spiced cider or head over to our local beer tent to whet your appetite for a full programme of entertainment. From bone – crunching Plantagenet Society knights to the bed of nails and fire juggling, there's entertainment throughout the castle all weekend and keep an eye open for 10 foot tall giants! www.ludlowmedievalchristmas.co.uk

Welcome to Ludlow

Come and explore the wealth of things happening in our historic town in 2016

As Mayor of Ludlow for a second term in 2015 - 2016, it is my pleasure to welcome you to Ludlow's Calendar of Events 2016. historic listed buildings.

Find your way to our map of beautiful and historic Ludlow and visit Ludlow Castle, a nationally recognised ancient scheduled monument, set in beautiful public gardens in the centre of Ludlow. St Laurence's Church is a beautiful and popular visitor attraction in the town centre. Ludlow's medieval street layout is still evident and, at the end of Broad Street, the Broadgate arch is a significant remnant of the ancient town walls. Facing Broad Street, the grade I listed Buttercross Museum & Heritage Interpretation Centre offers a fantastic view of some of Ludlow's 500

historic listed buildings.

Museum exhibits include the Murchison section depicting Ludlow's unique geology, the Bitterley Hoard, and the history of Ludlow's Medieval Castle & Church.

Ludlow's great food reputation flourishes in the local delis, cafes, restaurants and public houses. Great independent shops can be found throughout the town centre. At its heart, Ludlow has a wonderful outdoor market, which trades all year round on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays & Saturdays and most Sundays and Thursdays throughout the year.

Ludlow has a vibrant community spirit and we are blessed with an abundance of festivals and activities throughout the year
