

Senior Citizen's Christmas Party 2012

Ludlow Town Council has received verbal and written thanks and appreciation for the successful Senior Citizen's Christmas Party 2012. The Annual Party is open to residents and was catered by students at Ludlow College. The Town Council would like to thank local businesses and individuals for donating prizes for the raffle and the local bakeries for their mince pies.

The Senior Citizen's were entertained by exuberant carols sung by Ludlow Infant School.

Comments from happy party goes:-

"You're so kind! to the staff at the Council thank you for a smashing party"

"I want to thank all concerned at the Guildhall for the excellent Xmas Pensioners Party put on by the Town Councilevery year that goes by the party gets better. We admired and appreciated the hard work put in by everyone from the Mayor downwards to the College Students, who were marvellous (the food was very good and very tastefully presented)....."

Did you attend this year or previous year and take photographs?
